

We are very happy with Indiana's Telephone Privacy laws.

There are some exceptions to the law and we wish that the laws were broader to cover these exceptions.

We value our privacy for phone service and do not appreciate any unwanted businesses or services calling us with something that we do not want.

We are not infavor of any ruling that wou;d diminish the states ability to protect the consumer from unwanted solicitation